

Second Cabauw Intercomparison of Nitrogen
Dioxide Measuring Instruments

You are cordially invited to the
CINDI-2 Campaign Opening
Monday, 12 September 2016, 12:45

Hosted at the Cabauw Experimental Site
for Atmospheric Research

Registration: cindi-2@knmi.nl

Royal Netherlands
Meteorological Institute
Ministry of Infrastructure and the Environment

CESAR

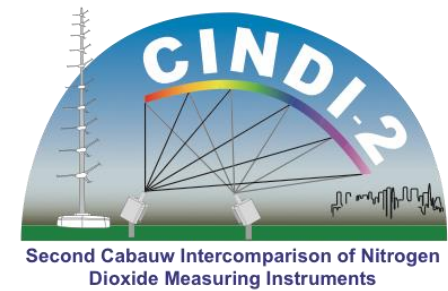

Cabauw Experimental Site for Atmospheric Research

esa

Royal Netherlands
Meteorological Institute
Ministry of Infrastructure and the Environment

Program

12:45	Sandwiches
13:15	Opening Remarks	Arnoud Apituley CINDI-2 local organiser, KNMI
13:25	Welcome Address	Gerard van der Steenhoven Director General, KNMI
13:40	Satellite Validation Needs	Thorsten Fehr Scientific Campaign Coordinator, ESA
14:00	CINDI Highlights and CINDI-2 Overview	Michel van Roozendaal CINDI-2 Science Coordinator, BIRA-IASB
14:20	The role of satellite data: OMI & TROPOMI	Pepijn Veeffkind TROPOMI Principal Investigator, KNMI
14:40	Tea and Coffee
15:00	Introduction Small Air Quality Sensors	Bas Mijling Senior Scientist Air Quality, KNMI
15:15	Site Visit & Demonstrations	Various CINDI-2 Participants
16:00	Drinks and Snacks
17:00	End

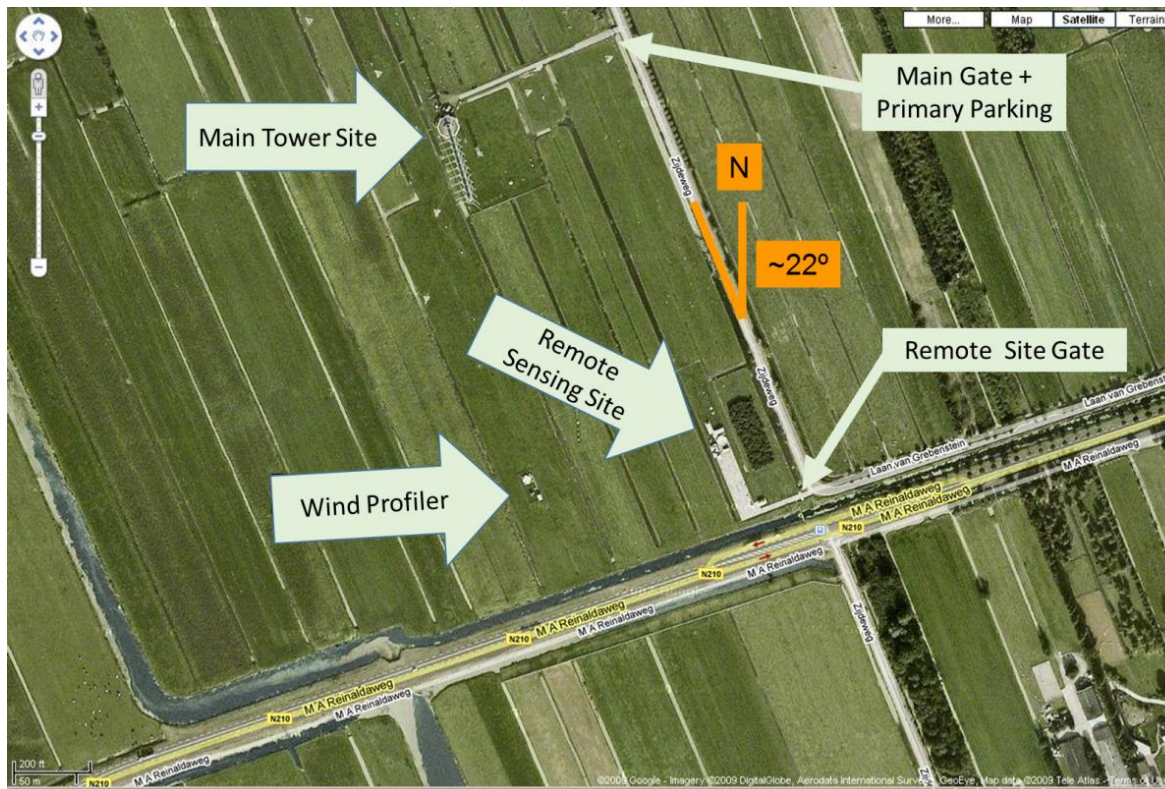

Location and Parking

Address : Zijdweg 1, 3411 MH Lopik, The Netherlands.

Phone : +31 348 551300

Google Maps link: <http://bit.ly/29wQVx6>

Parking is be available at the main tower site just beyond the gate.

Please register by emailing
cindi-2@knmi.nl